

MONTMARTRE

MOULIN ROUGE TO SACRÉ CŒUR

PARIS of the
PARISIANS

OUR MOST POPULAR
TOUR

This tour of the most artistic district of Paris explores the spots that once inspired Renoir, Picasso and Edith Piaf, now the heart of Parisian good living

- Moulin Rouge, French can-can and Cabaret of the Assassins
- Sacré Coeur and Artists Square
- Paris' crown jewel – vineyard 'Le Clos'
- the haunts of Renoir, Picasso and Amélie and why they matter to the rest of the world

Careful – everyone who sees Montmartre wants to move there.

all year 11am and 2.30pm // Also 5pm from May 1 to October 15, 2015

Map on the back // For wheelchairs: climbs, not advised

TRENDY MARAIS TOUR

PARIS of the
PARISIANS

This is where Parisians hang out, flirt, and shop – a mix of aristocratic homes of the 1600's and trendy spots du jour

- Place des Vosges and Picasso and Victor Hugo museums
- secret gardens and art galleries
- Jewish culture – the pletzl and the Holocaust Memorial
- the house of one-eyed Kate – lavish reward from the Sun-King for sexual favors
- the boutiques that set fashion one year ahead

A sophisticated mix of history and French art de vivre at its best.

all year 2.30pm

Map on the back // Wheelchair compatible

RIVER & ST-GERMAIN BEAUTIFUL PARIS

PARIS of the
PARISIANS

Possibly the most beauty-filled district of Paris - combining the river Seine, the Notre Dame island, and royal Saint-Germain.

Our tour includes:

- great vistas along the river trail and crossing bridges
- ornate Palace of Justice and sinister Conciergerie
- Marie-Antoinette's ante-chamber for the guillotine
- Majestic Sainte Chapelle and swanky Saint-Germain

Beware of falling hopelessly in love with Paris.

every day 5pm from May 1 to October 15, 2015

Map on the back // Wheelchair compatible

PARIS LANDMARKS RIGHT BANK TOUR

the MUST SEES of PARIS

A concentrate of Paris icons in 90 minutes
