PARIS of the PARISIANS

Moulin Rouge to Sacré Cœur

This tour of the most artistic district of Paris explores the spots that once inspired Renoir, Picasso and Edith Piaf, now the heart of Parisian good living

- Moulin Rouge, French can-can and Cabaret of the Assassins
- Sacré Coeur and Artists Square
- Paris' crown jewel – vineyard 'Le Clos'
- the haunts of Renoir, Picasso and Amélie and why they matter to the rest of the world

If you have time for only one tour - this is the one.

all year 11am and 2.30pm // also 5pm from May 1 to October 15, 2016

Map on the back // For wheelchairs: climbs, not advised

TRENDY MARAIS

Tour

This is where Parisians hang out, flirt, and shop – a mix of aristocratic homes of the 1600's and trendy spots du jour

- Place des Vosges and Picasso and Victor Hugo museums
- secret gardens and art galleries
- Jewish culture – the pletzl and the Holocaust Memorial
- a house for sexual favors: lavish reward for one-eyed Kate
- the boutiques that set fashion one year ahead

Join the Parisians in their favorite part of Paris.

all year 2.30pm // also 5pm from May 1 to October 15, 2016

ST-GERMAIN & THE RIVER

Seine to café de Flore

Saint-Germain is everyone's 'I want to live there' Paris. We cross the Seine on to the secret streets everyone is looking for, and we enter the worlds of:

- old streets, and favorites of Picasso and Delacroix
- art, jazz and resistance: Paris in World War II
- existentialism and Simone de Beauvoir
- fun, books and elegance - Paris style

This is a must-see part of Paris. Careful you'll want to move there.

every day 5pm from May 1 to October 15, 2016
